TECHNICAL & ADMINISTRATIVE BACKGROUND

B.Sc. in Computer Science & Artificial Intelligence gives me a structured, detail-oriented approach to research, data organization, and AI-assisted tools. In practice, this supports production work directly: building clean, professional pitch decks and presentations, researching locations and vendors efficiently, keeping schedules and budgets organized, and troubleshooting technical issues quickly when they come up on set or in the production office.

EDUCATION

B.Sc. Computer Science & Artificial Intelligence — Cairo University

Faculty of Computers and Artificial Intelligence · 2015 – 2020

AVAILABILITY

Open to freelance, project-based Assistant Producer work on fiction film and TV productions. Open to relocation for productions, internships, or further training abroad.
